Hello. Another year has passed. And once again the Trident has tried its best to capture the unforgetable moments.

Remember the excitement of the 34-0 football games, the gas shortage that caused so many schools to close or some of the field trips to the world outside that seemed so different from BHS? Well, the 1977 Trident has not forgotten and will forever contain these memories.

It shows the never before 9-1 season for the football team and how the sophomores broke tradition and got class shirts that read " '79 — Mighty Fine."

There was also the axing of the awards assembly for the seniors, the landscaping of the West House, and the combining of Commencement and Baccalaurate.

On the national Scene, Jimmy Carter and Walter Mondale became President and Vice-President in the mock election.

In high school there are many special moments — ones that make us what we will be in the future. People expand their knowledge, grow and move away. But their basic ideals in life come from the memories of Football, Graduation, Field Trips and Brunswick High.

Frosh make WH changes

In its second year of operation the West House underwent a physical transformation. Mr. Ronald Fabich's earth science class landscaped the the front of the building with trees, rocks and flowering plants.

To pay for the bushes, the class sponsored a pie-eating contest. The faculty out-ate freshmen Todd Hagerty, Dean Wunderly, Mike Pauletta and Rob Beattie.

And to keep Brunswick clean, Sean Carlson originated the idea of a recycling committee. By school's end, 19 students were involved in the city-wide project.

Jo Sandy learns to set a margin.

Digman leads fund raisers

First place in the Homecoming float competition gave the sophomores confidence.

John Digman, class president, organized car washes and held a BHS skate party as fund-raising projects.

One project, which stirred enthusiasm, was the sophomore class T-shirt.

The sophomores also had two "hot shots." Rick Rennert and Randy Rogers competed in the National Hotshot basketball contest and represented the Cleveland Cavaliers.

Randy shot his way to New Orleans before being eliminated from competition.

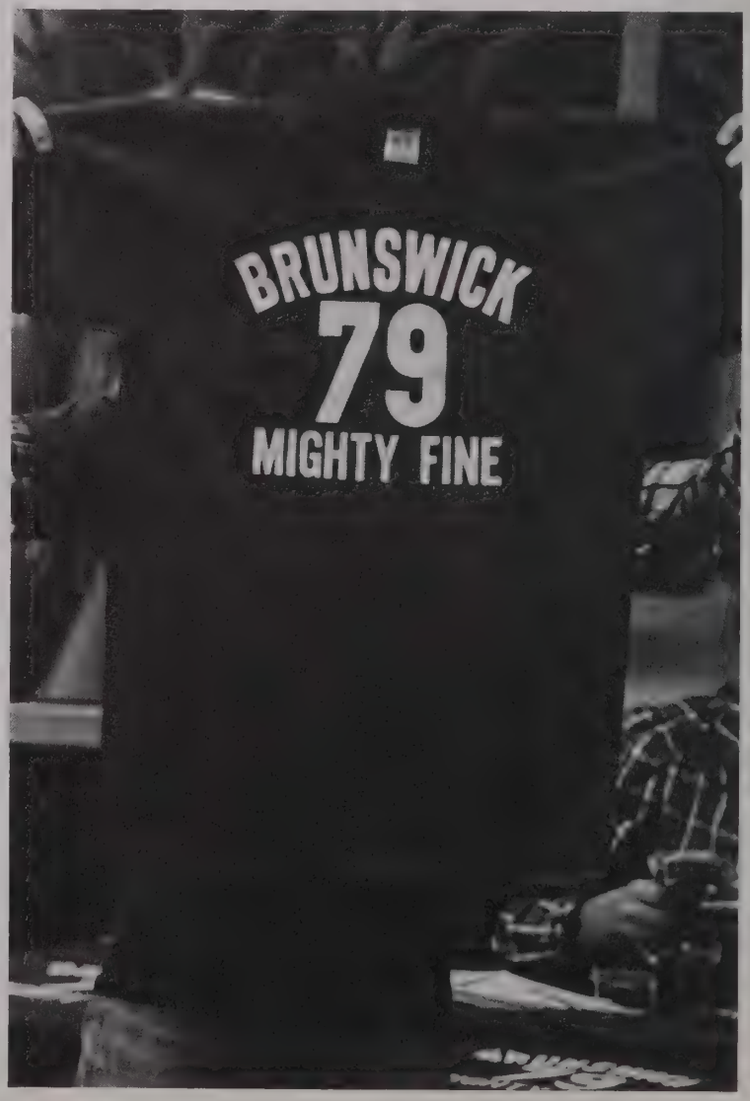
Dan Zyockonski works on an art project.



Sophomores break tradition with a mighty fine shirt.

Juniors work toward prom

A slow start on the prom ended as a booming success for the juniors. The prom held at the Holiday Inn in Strongsville ended the class' responsibility for the year.

To pay for the spring formal, the juniors had car washes, sold sweat shirts and jerseys and collected class dues.

In May, 22 juniors were inducted into the National Honor Society.

Junior Class Officers: Linda Langfitt, treasurer, Colleen Goonan, secretary, Mary Hunt, vice-president, Princess McMillan, president.

JVS builds futures

By preparing students for careers or specialized training, the Medina County Joint Vocational School (JVS) built futures.

Last year 326 BHS students attended the JVS to receive on-the-job training in cosmetology, welding, child care, horticulture, auto mechanics and many more.

"It was worthwhile to go to the JVS," said Traci Neely. She believed that she got a better education there than at the regular four-year high school.

CC squad reaches 6-year meet low

For the first time in six years the cross country team had a losing season, after losing the top five runners off of last year's team.

"I'm not let down about this season. It was mainly a rebuilding of the team," said third-year coach Joe Kendrick.

Running in their final meets were Jim Bator, Dairl Campbell, Marc Dukles, Kerry Hunter, Jeff LaHue, Dan Laux, and Phil Said.

"We're losing quite a few good runners this year, but there are some good young boys coming up," explained Coach Kendrick.

Kerry Hunter, captain of the varsity team, earned his fourth letter as a harrier. Third-year awards went to Bator, Dukles and Laux. Freshman Dave Faler earned his first-year letter presented at the awards banquet by Hunter.

Marc Dukles earned a trip to districts by qualifying at sectionals while improving his personal best time by thirty seconds in the two mile event.

Lack of height hurts Devilettes

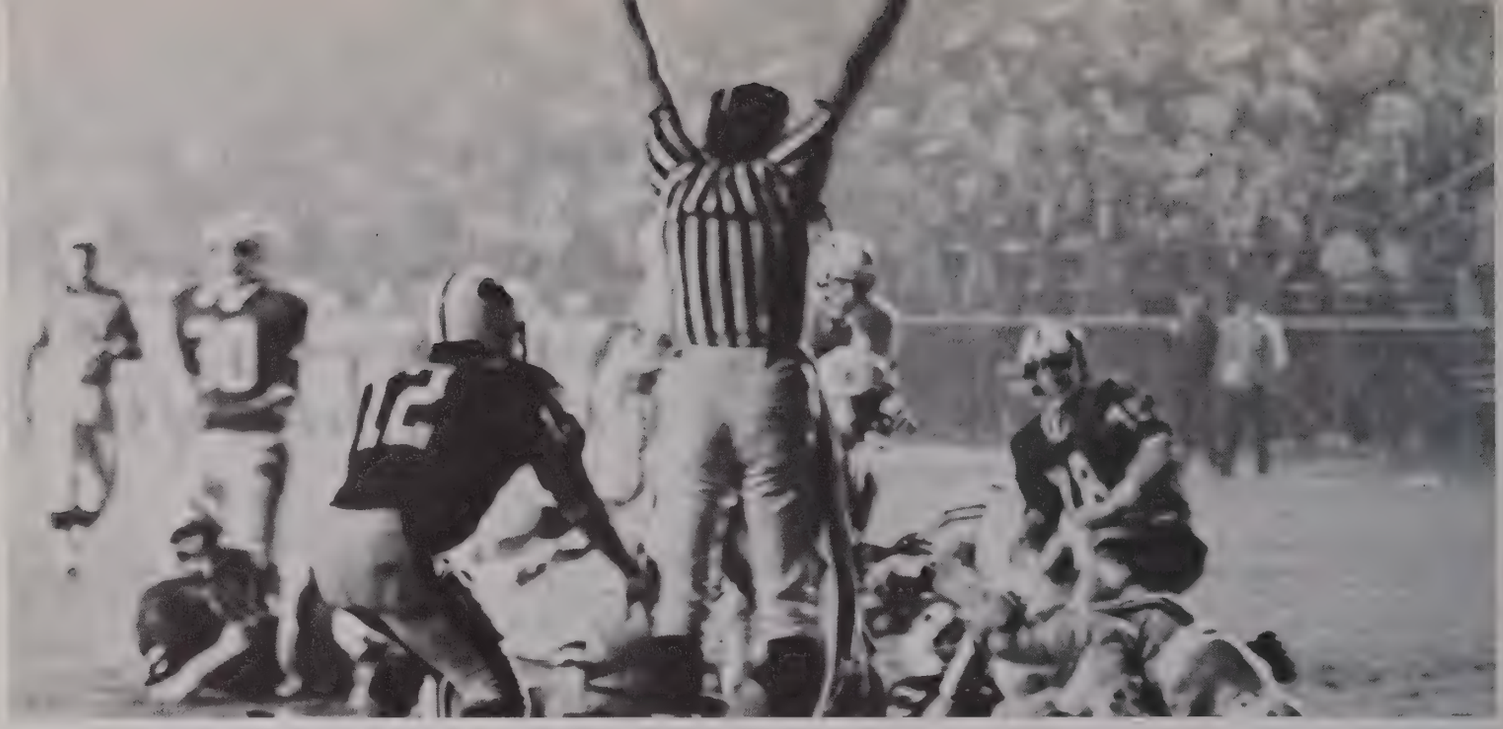
After a very slow start, the Devilette volleyball team rallied to win four out of its last five matches before suffering a disappointing loss to Midview in the first game of sectionals.

The turnaround during the latter part of the campaign insured coach Margaret Fletcher of never having a losing season in her eight years of coaching the sport.

Fletcher pointed to lack of experience and a height disadvantage as the main causes for her team's inconsistency.

Senior Tammy Clift was singled out as being one of the best spikers in Devilette history. Linda Kennedy excelled in defense and Lori Horn won praise for her offensive play as well as her poise in pressure situations.

The junior varsity record of four wins and nine losses was a result of experimenting with new types of play. Judy Kemper, Laura Gaub and Marlene Robinson, a transfer student, all showed great promise as they were brought up to the varsity team for the tournament.



The Devils score six more against Medina.

Devil gridders are near-perfect

The season began at the new stadium behind the East-West House complex as Brunswick handed North Royalton a 22-12 defeat in a thunderstorm.

The rugged Devils added eight more wins, suffering only one loss, a 7-6 heartbreaker to Massillon Jackson. Nine victories in a single season set a school record.

Adding to its most successful football season in BHS history, Fred Vick, guard, was named All-State honorable mention and Bill Costner, quarterback, and Frank Mack, halfback, were named to the All-District team.

Fullback Mark Johnson led the team in rushing and was named best offensive back. Gene Petronick received awards for the most tackles and "hungry hound." Bill Costner was named Most Valuable Player and was one of the tri-captains along with Bob Petelin and Mike Childers.

The future looks bright for the Blue Devils as they beat all of the new Pioneer Conference opponents.

As the fans acknowledge, the Big Blue Machine socks it to Medina, 34-0, at the final whistle.

JV's mirror image of strong varsity

Following in the varsity's footsteps, the JV football team had an excellent season in 1976. The Devils finished with seven wins, while losing only to Medina and Strongsville.

Dan Sciria and Tim Monroe finished one-two in scoring and junior Dave Huthmaker led the team in rushing. Alan Reuber was the number one pass receiver.

The strong point of the team was defense, as they shut out opponents in six of the nine games.

Highlights of the season were the 38-0 thrashing of Buckeye and the four-game winning streak during the middle of the season.

Frosh win 2

After suffering an almost disastrous start, the freshman football team showed tremendous improvement, especially in the latter part of the season.

The young Devils won their last two games, defeating Cloverleaf and Walsh Jesuit to salvage a respectable season. The latter victory avenged a 56-0 drubbing the previous year.

2 golfers finish 4-year lettermen

Darren Rabant and Tom Campbell, seniors, joined the select group of athletes to be four-year lettermen.

Darren ended his reign as Brunswick's premier golfer by never missing a match in his four years of varsity competition.

He also became the only BHS golfer ever to be low-qualifying medalist at the sectional golf tournament.

Tim Eyssen earned his third varsity letter and will return next year. Jeff Boresh, Jeff Kebberly, and Joe Hlavac all received their first letter.

Tying the record of 21 wins last year, Henry Gimbel has complied an impressive 199 wins, 46 losses and one tie in his 13 years as golf coach.

JV's learn basics

The junior varsity team played .500 golf, winning and losing five matches.

Coach Bob Leibold singled out sophomore John Chernie for his fine play during the season.

Girls win two

North Royalton, the girl linksters only match all year, fell victim to the team twice.

Because no girl's competition was available, Janelle Eyssen, Shelly Kriak, and Lee Schnittker competed on the junior varsity team. It was the first time in BHS golf history that girls played on the boys' team.

Bob Pauletta out-muscles his Kent Roosevelt opponent for a BHS decision.

Johnson pins down 3d in state meet

"It was the hardest season ever," said Coach Gary Eaton about last season's wrestling competition. The grapplers took on Berea Midpark, Cleveland Heights and Maple Heights during the regular and post-season struggle.

To show its depth, three freshmen wrestled at the varsity level. They were district alternate Dean Wunderly, Jeff Johnson and Glenn Tabor.

The team won the Revere Invitational Tournament and captured the runner-up spot in its own invitational in December.

After qualifying for a trip to the state championship by taking a first in the Garfield Heights sectionals and in the Mentor district tourney, Mark Johnson (167) took a third in the state, the best ever in BHS wrestling history.

Bob Pauletta, Dwayne Roberts and Darryl Jenkins scored second place victories at the sectionals. Eric Neely and Brad Squires took third.

"Some of our success was due to the fact that we had a good schedule and a tough tough one," Coach Eaton said.

On the season, Daryl Jenkins had the most pins (17). Bob Pauletta was chosen Most Improved and Dwayne Roberts the Hardest Worker.

Receiving fourth year varsity awards were Eric Neely and Mark Johnson. Mark was also named Most Valuable and was selected to represent the West squad in Cleveland's East-West All-Star meet in March.

Southwest league trips Devilettes

For the first time, the Devilettes raised their schedule to 15 games. But with the increased number of games, so came tougher competition.

Westlake, Bay Village and North Olmsted proved the most difficult for the girl cagers.

Senior Linda Kennedy captained the team. At the season's end, Linda had the best shooting percentage, 31 per cent, and had averaged 15 points per game.

Other top performers were Monica Dorfner with 145 rebounds for an 11 carooms per game. Lori Horn mastered the foul shot for 64 per cent from the charity stripe.

Overall the team averaged 38 points on offense but allowed an average of 45 points on defense.

For the junior varsity, Lori Hein was selected the most valuable player. She scored 105 points in 12 games, grabbed 57 rebounds and shot 52 per cent from the foul line.

Laura Fix maintained an average of six rebounds for a total of 69 on the season.

Cagers close in on record season

Coach Jack Schneider was proud of the record established by his team, the best since the 1965-66 Blue Devils were 19-3. He felt the record was better than he anticipated at the beginning of the year.

Of the five games that the cagers did lose, not one was by more than six points. All were disappointments for the young Devils, and Coach Schneider felt they could have won all of them.

"The team played hard, but they did not do well against physical teams," he said.

A run-down of the team by the coach showed that the starting squad was a team of specialists in different areas.

Senior guard Frank Mack was the team's play-maker. On the other side of the backcourt, senior Darren Rabant was the team's outside shooter.

Junior forward Steve Ficyk was the best one-on-one player.

The other forward, Clay Pickering, was the leading rebounder and later contributed with his hot shooting.

Tim Eyssen, 6'5" junior center, was the leading scorer throughout the season.

At the end of the basketball season, Coach Jack Schneider was named as Medina County Coach of the Year.

But at the Canton meet, the boys took all three places on the floor exercises. Ron Wilhem won first, Tim Golden took second and Dave captured third place.

Mrs. Marilyn Meers coached the boys in her first season as mentor.

A lack of personnel plagued the team from its inception. At the start of the season, nine boys went out for the team, but it quickly shrank to five.

"Gymnastics is just now starting to lose its mystique of feminity. What we need is a feeder program from the elementary schools so that by the time the boys reach high school they have the basics down and can go on to more advanced routines," Mrs. Meers explained.

"We had good practice facilities at the West House. The boosters bought us a new springboard for vaulting, so no one gets shinsplints anymore."

But what troubled the coach more than all else was the fact that BHS never had any home meets for the boys.

"How can the students support us if they can never see us," she asked.

Mrs. Alta Fraley took over as the head coach of the girls' gymnastics team, replacing Miss Rebecca Stolarski.

The girls competed in 14 meets, losing only two.

Marlyne Robinson went to the district tournament and was chosen the most valuable BHS gymnast. Tracey Waite was the third best ghmnast and Susie Rucky was fourth.

Judy McClintock was the most valuable gymnast on the beam.

Blue Devil Pickering high jumps to state

In a BHS first, Clay Pickering became its only state qualifier ever. He went to the Columbus meet in the high jump but did not place in the finals.

But on the new stadium all-weather track, the team rushed to a 6-1 season, setting or breaking numerous records. Pickering leaped 6'6" at Berea for a BHS high jump mark.

In the shot put, Rick Grandinetti heaved the ball 49'0" and Dave Ross set the mark for the 100-yard dash at 10 seconds.

Stadium records amassed by the 1977 Blue Devils were the 880-yard relay of Ross, Rick Monroe, Dennis Fitz and Rich Perry at 1:32.5 and the 220-yard dash by Ross at 22.8.

Relay records that went by the wayside were the shuttle hurdles in 61.4 seconds by Monroe, Jim Bator, Cy Pickering and Fitz and the 440-yard relay by Ross, Larry Carabello, Fitz and Perry.

Netters wins 3; look to rebuild

The tennis team won one-two-three matches in its second year of competition.

In match points, the netters scored 28 points, a 27-point improvement over 1976.

The first win in the team's history came at the hands of Norwayne when the Blue Devils scored an impressive 5-0 win.

Cleveland Lincoln-West and Brooklyn also fell victim to the BHS netters in the 16-game schedule.

Because of graduation, the team lost three seniors. Bill Costner, Tom Huff and Cary Tengel had records of 4-11, 7-9, and 6-12 on the season respectively.

Despite the losing season, Coach David Rogers was proud of the team.

"We had better spirit than any team we played," said the coach.

"All we need is facilities to get practice time to work and a program to start kids playing at a younger age to build a solid team for years to come," Rogers added.

School bosses keep BHS open

Through inches of snow, record-breaking temperatures and hours of counseling, the BHS administration came out shining through another school year.

Superintendant Paul Keaton made many split-second decisions concerning school closings because of weather.

And after 19 years of service to BHS, Mrs. Ethel Johnson, high school accountant, retired.

Under the office management of Miss Evelyn Kreidle, the young ladies of senior IOE prepared for careers as secretaries. In its make-believe company — Apex — the class performed all of the duties that are in a real business firm.

Besides learning secretarial skills and managing an office efficiently, the Apex class published a newsletter for its staff and exchanged it with business classes in other high schools.

Work-study tries to ease job hunt

High school tried to ease the employment problems of the future with work-study and joint vocational programs.

"My students take OWE to get through high school with a job in one hand and a diploma in the other," said Mr. Elton Beery, Occupational Work Experience (OWE) instructor.

Mr. Beery helped his students find jobs. He believes that some students are turned off by school and would rather have a job. But when students take OWE, they get both.

OWE students had class for two periods a day, then took history and English before going to their jobs.

In class Mr. Beery taught consumer education. He visited his students on the job to see how they were doing.

They worked an average of 15 hours a week.

"My job is more of a selling job. I try to keep them developing their skills," Mr. Beery said.

Student Government brings Christmas visitor to BHS

It's not often that Santa Claus comes to visit, but he did last year.

Sponsored by Student Government, Santa (better known to students as Mr. Elton Beery) stayed a while the week before Christmas to listen to Christmas wishes and have his picture taken with students.

As a fund-raiser, the photography session with Santa was a success. More than 100 students paid 75 cents for the Poloroid picture of them with Santa.

'Trident,' 'Devilier' capture impressive wins in competition

In his only try for council representative, Steve Hengeli was elected to serve as the 1977-78 chairperson of the Northeastern Ohio Scholastic Press Association. He won over six other candidates at the 38th annual NOSPA Press Day, April 19.

Kim Hanson, feature editor of the Devilier won a second place for her non-news feature on dieting and Tom Huff captured a third place for his story on the rise of girls' sports. Lori Hanrahan, editor-in-chief, won a third for best editorial on the "Buy-centennial."

Her photo of an election gave Pam Conley an Honorable Mention for photography and the Devilier took an Honorable Mention for the best newspaper in a high school of more than 1000 students.

With these five awards, the Devilier has collected 17 awards in its three years of competition.

While the Devilier was winning awards in the spring, the Trident took a first at Bowling Green State University in October, competing with schools from all over Ohio and Michigan. This was the yearbook's second first place.

'Muse' highlights student authors

Mr. Earl Fesseden's Senior Honors English class had a duel identity. By morning it was a class of studious and well-behaved students, but at certain times throughout the year it underwent changes to become members of the Quill and Scroll.

"Fess's Follies" sent them into a menagerie of skits and stories in its annual Christmas production. "A Celtic Christmas," "A Christmas Carol", and the "Green Knight" were among the delicacies presented.

In the spring, the class also published "The Muse," a student collection of short stories, poems and art work.

Field trips were an important part of the class as the students went to Stan Hewet Hall, the Lorain Civic Auditorium to see "The Devil's Disciple" and to the Cleveland Playhouse for "Macbeth."

Margie Hay voted to thespian post

The theatre came to BHS thanks to the work of the students in the Drama Club and Thespians Honorary.

Throughout the year the actors and actresses put on "Annie Get Your Gun," the fall musical, "Cinderella," the children's play, "See How They Run," the winter production, and "Bullshot Crummond," the spring drama.

Margie Hay, a junior, was elected secretary of the Region II State Conference of Thespians at its state convention in April.

Penal reform is top debate topic

Headed by top debaters Paul Cieslak, Denise Hanscak, Mike Wiseman, Bill Fleming and John Thompson, the forensics team had more than its share of competition.

The major topic of debate for the team was penal reform in its one-half dozen contests.

Bands play under 3 conductors

After 10 football games, two concerts and three directors, the BHS bands turned out another musical season to entertain parents, administration and students.

Under the direction of Robert Neidlinger, the band delighted the annual spring concert audience with music from "The Sound of Music," the "Parade of the Charioteers," from "Ben Hur," "Sounds of the Carpenters," and "Captains and Kings."

At the concert, senior Pat Buser eagerly accepted the John Philip Sousa Award, the highest award given to a bandsperson.

For the first time, juniors and seniors were presented letters for their years of dedication to the band.

The distinction of being participants in the All-Ohio State Concert Band went to flutist Cathy Schibler and trombonist Gary Werner. Both performed at the Ohio State Fair with 300 other top-quality musicians during the summer.

27 new members join NHS

Eager candidates for the National Honor Soceity (NHS) had to wait until mid-May before they were inducted into the honorary.

But when the time came, veteran members of the NHS held a trial, espousing the attributes of service, character and scholarship of the society.

Then new members were tapped and called down to light their candles, symbolizing induction into the organization.

Twenty-seven students — 22 juniors, 5 seniors — were added to the NHS roster.

Members of the varsity club, an organization open to sports figures, served as a link between the world of sport, academics and community.

Spain, quarries are part of class

Since the woods won't come to the students, the students went to the woods and quarries in search of material for study in the Geology Club.

Last year the club took trips to Flintridge near Columbus, Pugh Quarry near Findlay and the Silvania Quarry in northwestern Ohio.

Other excursions were to Hocking State Forest and a business that takes aerial photographs of land masses.

Those students who wanted to go a little farther on a field trip joined forces to take a trip to Spain in the summer.

Headed by Mrs. Sybil Kaboy, Spanish teacher, the Spanish Club had bake sales, candy drives and flowers sales to raise enough money to help defer the student's cost for the trip.

Skiers, cyclists enjoy recreation

None of the sport clubs were more popular with the student body than the Ski and Bike Clubs. These groups gave students the chance to get out and have fun with friends in recreation.

On two nights a week throughout the winter, busloads of skiers left the high school for the slopes of Brandywine.

Mr. Gil Stevens and Mr. Frank Nash, advisers, took an active part in the club as they joined the skiers on the slopes.

A trip to New York to ski was the highlight of the winter season.

Frank's the target in Berlin's 'Annie'

A recreation of Irving Berlin's rousing musical, "Annie Get Your Gun," was presented Nov. 18, 19 and 20 at Brunswick High School.

Doing what comes naturally, Annie Oakley joined Buffalo Bill's traveling Wild West show as a gun-slinging sharp-shooter.

Annie soon learned you can't get a man with a gun when she tried to impress Frank Butler with her shooting abilities. Upon this realization, she stubbornly submitted to loosing a shooting match for the man she had fallen in love with.

Fairy tale adds costume switch

A delightful re-enactment of the children's fairy tale, "Cinderella," crossed the stage of three Brunswick elementary schools Oct. 26, 27 and 28.

British comedy brightens stage

As serious as WW II days were, some people found things to laugh about as "See How They Run" shows.

Bullshot comes to the rescue

Comedy reigned supreme in Ron House and Diz White's play, "Bullshot Crummond," April 1, as the drama students presented the spring play.

In keeping with the reputation of "April Fool's Day," Bullshot delighted his audience with prankster antics. Romance, drama and suspense characterized the mockery of the super-hero image of plays, movies and novels of the 1930's.

Otto and Lenya Von Brunno kidnap Professor Fenton in order to obtain his formula for manufacturing synthetic diamonds. The professor's daughter calls on Bullshot to rescue her father.

Even with the confusion throughout the story, in the end, Bullshot, like all heroes, gets his man.

47 acts enter BHS 'Gong Show'

Following the popular television amateur variety show format, the Spring Fling became BHS's "Gong Show."

The freshman performers had two shows — one during the day for the student body and one at night for the parents and friends.

Forty-seven students signed up for this all-freshman show.

Chris Eastwood assisted Miss Linda Hamilton, director, in making the show a success.

Tim Whitney, master of ceremonies, announced the acts.

Some of the performances were: Debbie Shones singing "I Won't Last a Day Without You," Terri Frimel and Kathy Cieslak playing "The Old Piano Roll Blues," Michelle Homan singing "The Way we Were," and "Three Greaser Classics," by Jeff Canterbury, Bart Haas, Doug Hagmeier and Dave Schwark.

Cindy Peters and Chris Eastwood performed "Interpreter of Music for the Hard of Hearing," the girls' chorus line danced to "Dis Train," and Denise Hurlbut and Toni McDaniels did "The Slosh."

"I was really pleased with the turn out and the attitude of the kids," said Miss Hamilton.

Record cold winter frosts country; schools close

"It stings the toes and bites the nose" was an accurate description of the winter blizzard and cold weather which effected schools, businesses and homes throughout the eastern U.S. last winter.

In Ohio, the deep freeze lasted from Christmas until mid-February.

Because of sub-zero temperatures, Columbia and East Ohio Gas Companies cut back natural gas supplies to their industrial customers. As a result, schools closed and industries shut down, laying off thousands of workers.

Home owners put on sweaters and set their thermostats to 65 degrees during the day and 55 at night.

The cold and snow effected BHS, too.

Mr. Paul Keaton, superintendent, set guidelines which had to be followed to conserve fuel.

"Suggestions have been coming from the Superintendent of Public Schools in Ohio since last year on how to conserve energy beginning in the classroom by keeping the drapes closed," he said.

Other measures used to save natural gas were to cut back the thermostats in the school to 65 degrees and to convert the Middle School, Crestview, and C.R. Towslee from natural gas to fuel oil. The East House was converted to fuel oil in 1974.

The weather and low supplies of gas closed the Brunswick schools for 11 days.

A split-schedule was proposed by Mr. Keaton. If the situation would have arisen when the school re-opened Feb. 9, the split-session would have been used.

Student react to school crisis

With school closed for nine straight days in January and February, students had reactions to the closing and the energy crisis.

Judy O'Neill, 12 — "I don't really think they ran out of fuel. I think they were scared that they were going to, so they kept it."

Tom Corner, 11 — "I think they were holding back. I think they (the gas companies) were making up the situation to get more money."

Carl Prokop, 12 — "I don't believe it. In my opinion, they're blowing things out of proportion. The gas companies were doing the same things the oil companies were doing last year. The economy is in sad shape, and everyone is thinking for himself and not those around him."

Diann Walker, 10 — "I'm glad we were out of school. But if they would have closed down other places, like stores and bars, it would have been better."

Dave Bowen, 10 — "It's a big fraud. All they are doing is holding back. If they keep on, it will turn into another scandal like Watergate."

Laura Ferio, 12 — "I think it was a great vacation. They should have another one."

Students take active interest in their own education

Education never hurt anyone. Although English, math and science took up most of the day in the life of a BHS student, everyone did something to contribute to the pride inside the walls of BHS.

Fontaine Follansbee won the Miss Medina County Beauty Pagent, allowing her to compete in the Miss America Pagent in June.

Mark Johnson placed third in the state class AAA wrestling meet. (weight class 167) showing his determination and perserverance.

An earth science class designed, layed out and landscaped the front entrance of the West House. They raised the money to complete the project through candy sales and a teacher vs. student pie-eating contest.

With each new project and each new day, students proved their success to make something better of themselves and BHS.

In the face of familiar facades

She's just another pretty face. Baby face. You are the cutest little baby face. Freckle face. Funny face.

By just moving an eyebrow or cracking a smile, your face becomes something new, something different. Look in the mirror if you don't believe it.

Did you ever have egg on your face? A pie in the face? Or were you twofaced and had to face up to it?

Students smiled, frowned, grinned, puckered and grimaced their way through an abbreviated school year. They smiled when school was closed, but frowned when they had to return.

In the halls many grinned at the sight of others puckering. And the athletes grimaced as they attempted to score the winning touchdown or foul shot.

But now the year's over. About face!

Homecoming finds a rainbow

The "Thrill of Victory" rippled through the BHS student body as the Big Blue Machine rolled over the Copley Indians, 14-0, for a Homecoming victory.

In front of 4,900 fans, Queen Kim Hanson and her court ruled over one of the biggest displays of Homecoming pagentry in BHS history.

At an in-school pep rally the queen, Kim Hanson, was named and her court was announced. Vicky Egbert, freshman attendant; Becky Kernell, sophomore attendant; Kim Johnson and Sandy McCormick, junior attendants; Teresa Marlyne and Jody Faler, senior attendants, comprised the court.

The sophomore float, "Put the Spark to the Flame," captured first place. Second place was awarded to the senior class for its float entitled "Drum Out a Victory."

At "In search of a Rainbow," the Homecoming dance Saturday evening, a scent of elegance drifted in the air as over 160 couples "hustled" and "bumped" to the beat of the "Imperials."

The queen, court and escorts danced to Jefferson Starship's "Miracles" and the magic of the evening was filled memories as a beautiful time to remember.

Faculty squeezes pass All-Stars in intramural finale

The intramural basketball program finished its season last year by pitting a game with the senior All-Stars against the faculty at a student assembly.

The faculty squeezed passed the All-Stars by a 32-30 final score.

Seniors on the All-Star team were Mike Masterson, Gene Petronick, Jim Bator, Dave Ross, Ed Burba, Bill Costner, Andy Kaisek, Dan Sigado, Greg Johnson, Gary Rohde and Cary Tengle.

The faculty team consisted of Jill Vavra, Sue Butz, Sybil Kaboy, Cheryl Vlasik, Elaine Keller, Tim Lance, Keith Newnham, Chuck Reisland, Phil Tipton, Carl Becks, Tom DeMarco, Howard Cook, Gary Rudolph, Rich Nowak and Will Klingle. Jim Hayas coached the team.

Referees were Richard Christy and Bob Leibold.

The intramural program featured 15 teams during the season. Among the top four at the end of the regular season were The Screw Offs, with an 11-0 record, followed by Jack's Rejects at 10-1, Rohde Rowdies, 8-3, and the Incas, 7-4.

Mr. Keith Newnham aims a long shot.

Gene Petronick awaits a pass.

All heart, Howard Cook waits for a rebound.

Phil Tipton goes up for two points.

One-eyed, Chuck Reisland seeks out the open man.

The All-Stars huddle before the game.

Jill Vavra shouts the faculty to a win.

BHS talent defies Friday the 13th

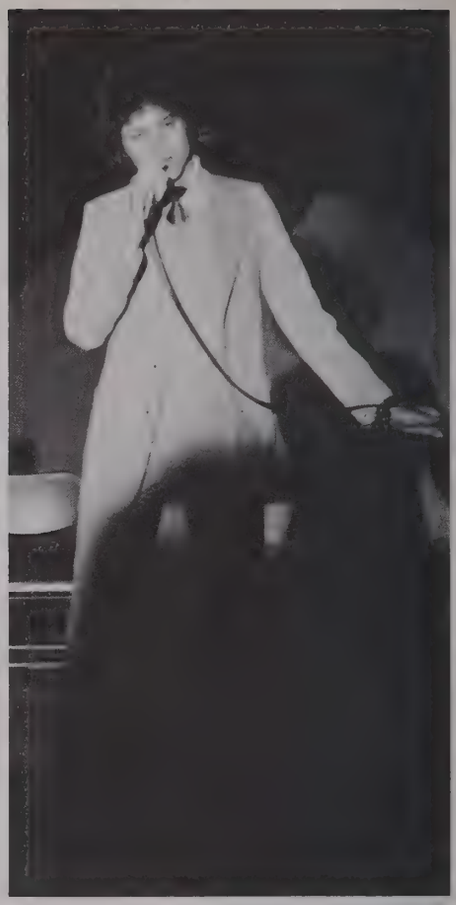
Singing, dancing and a whole lot more slipped through doors leading onto the stage in a "Dick Van Dyke Show" setting, May 13.

Acts starring BHS students included a piano duet playing "The Fifth of Beethovan," disco version, a faculty skit performed by four teachers and a take-off on TV commercials.

Students performing were Dave Bias, Gary Bewley, Bob Chester, Fontaine Follansbee, Steve Hengeli, Glenn Karras, Sandy McCormick, Tim Petrey, Eric Schneidder, Jeff Sobe, Mary Tyson and Pat Zisko.

John Digman, sophomore, served as the master of ceremonies.

The show was under the direction of Mrs. Nancy Sprowls, drama teacher, and Mrs. Margaret Kine, music instructor.



MC John Digman hosts talent.

Debbie Goonan, Fontaine Follansbee and Deb Applegate trumpet their way through the Andrews Sisters' "Bugle Boy from Company B."

Steve Hengeli assists Laurie Getson in her fund drive.

Teachers Mike Samolis, Lanex Brink, Howard Cook and Nancy Young read aloud.

Betty Thesling pantomines her act.

Ever see a pillow person?

Teachers frequently change as often as students do

Teachers are special. Each helped students achieve something better of themselves. The faculty in some ways added that extra touch that made BHS what it is.

Mrs. Genevieve Goodwin, head of the English department, retired after 21 years at BHS.

Mr. A. Ray Adams, the new principal, was named "Educator of the Year" in Brunswick.

Miss Leona Marra, head of the guidance department, celebrated her twentieth year at the school.

Mr. Robert Krosky, science teacher and former head basketball coach, took an early retirement in October for health reasons. Mr. Jeffrey Piwowar finished the school year for him.

Two other persons joined the staff during the year, too. Mr. Roger Katz, a Cleveland State graduate, took over for Mr. Laymon Brooks at the change of the semester.

Mrs. Harriet Purdy replaced Miss Pam Kusoski in English.

In the West House, Mrs. Mary Ann Hall left in March. Mrs. Sandra Reger completed the year for her.

And members of the band saw directors Scott Carlton, Joe Tighe, and Robert Niedlinger.

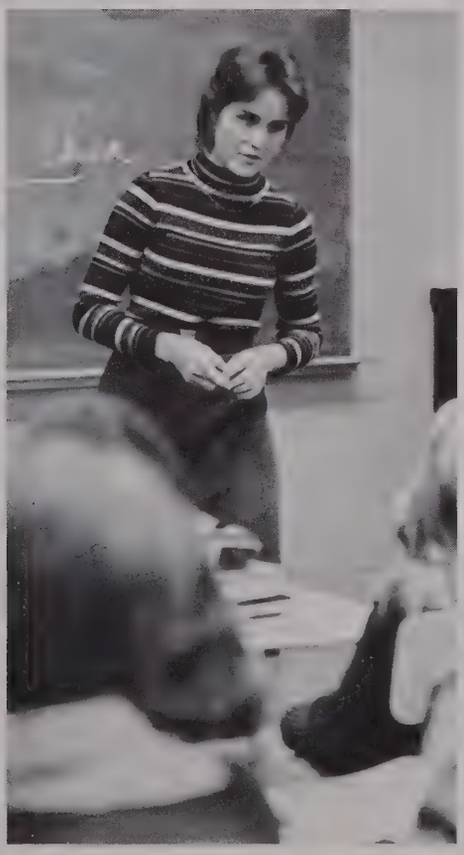
Mr. Schneider measures up his class.

Teacher for the day, Mr. Hollo substitutes for Mr. Nowak.

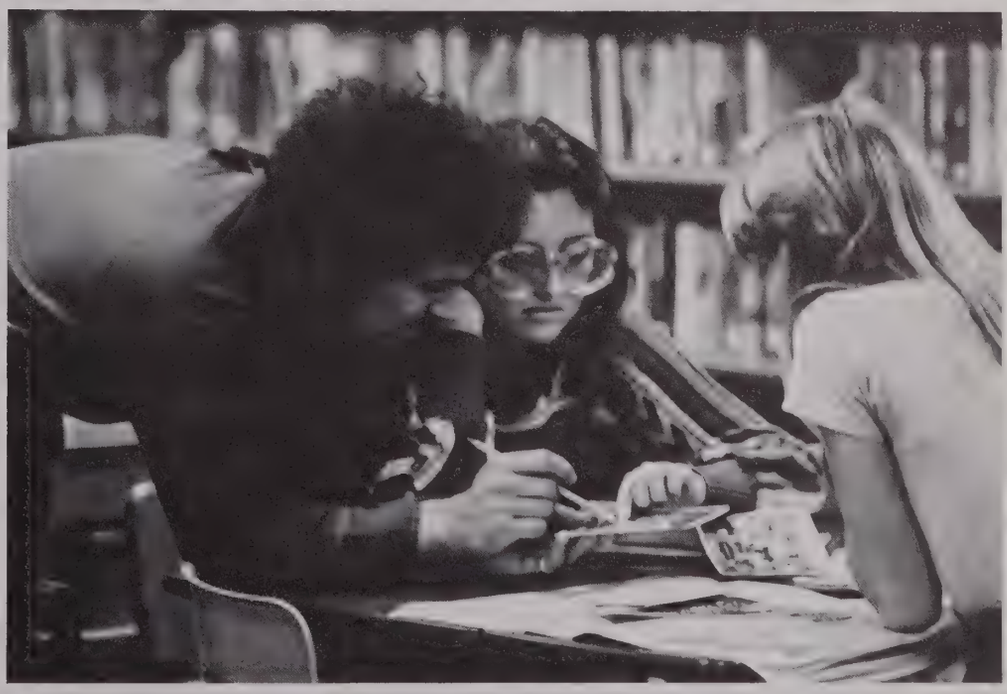
Mrs. Kirsch runs through the techniques for baseball.

Mr. Joos shares a bit of wisdom with a student.

After 21 years at BHS Mrs. Goodwin still keeps in touch with her students.



"Tu Hablas Espanol?" asks Mrs. Kaboy.



Mr. Piro points our the basics of Drivers Ed.

Seniors' spirit outlasts record cold, loss of jukebox

"Rocky" was the year's best picture. Farrah Fawcett Majors swept the country as America's newest sex symbol. Jimmy Carter took his people's campaign to the voters and became the 39th president of the United States.

And the most difficult and coldest winter in the history of northeastern Ohio locked the state in a 45-day deep freeze.

But the energy crunch didn't freeze the seniors as their spirit and enthusiasm warmed the halls of BHS more than ever before.

In September the Commons was made smaller, carpeted and the jukebox was removed. Mr. A. Ray Adams, new BHS principal, explained that the jukebox was taken out because it would disturb the persons in the newly added classrooms next to the Commons.

Denise Macie brought her radio every day to take the place of the much-missed jukebox.

The seniors ended their float-making careers as they received a second-place trophy in the annual Homecoming competition. The class also received two first place and one other second place honors over the four years.

Selected as the class song was "The Long and Winding Road;" the yellow rose was voted the class flower; and blue and white were the class colors.

"What lies behind us and what lies in front of us is nothing in comparison to what lies within us" was chosen as the class motto.

Seven girls were honored as debutants at the spring Cotillion presented by the Junior Women's Auxiliary. Picked on the basis of grades, community service and school activities were Rita Began, Bonnie Diedrich, Fontaine Follansbee, Kim Hanson, Lori Horn, Margaret Thesling and Rhonda Williams.

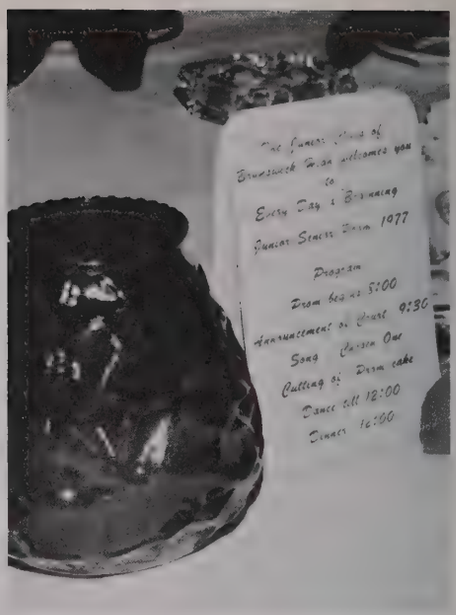
Junior-senior prom features court, dancing, midnight meal



On May 28 the junior class presented the seniors with the prom, "Every Day's a Beginning," and a night of dining, dancing and fun.

Filled with excitement, over 200 couples bustled into the Holiday Inn in Strongsville for an evening of Prom '77.

Couples danced to the music of the "Islands" from 8 p.m. until midnight.

Bill Costner and Jodi Faler were selected prom King and Queen and led the court in a dance to "The Chosen One," before ruling over the dance the remainder of the night.

Couples had their pictures taken with a sunrise setting background and at midnight a roast beef dinner was served.

Even though the evening came to a close, those who attended will always remember Prom '77 as an endless night of memories.

Paula Zydor whoops it up.

Mary Fox and Rick Grandinetti dance to the "Islands."

Wally Reid and Mary Alice Hentges break from dancing.

For Bill Richards and Tami Chundzinski, it was a long night.

Coliseum is the site of combined baccalaureate-commencement

"With a little help from my friends we're about to say Hello-Goodbye," said valedictorian Jeff LaHue to the persons gathered at the 78th commencement exercise.

Quoting twenty former hits by the Beatles, Jeff reminded the graduates that just as the famous singing group broke up and branched out, so must the Class of '77.

Mr. Paul E. Keaton, superintendent of schools, told the class of the "Long and Winding Road" that lay ahead of them.

And the Rev. Richard Beach quoted Geraldine to tell the students that "what you see is what you get," academically and spiritually, in the combined baccalaureate-commencement address.

The senior ensemble sang the class song and "I Believe" as thoughts of the memories of the past 12 years drifted through the minds of the soon-to-be-graduates.

Students of Brunswick High School marched into the Coliseum in Richfield, but following the words, "The Class of 1977 is now graduated," 486 adults proceeded from the floor of the massive building to make their educations work for them.

Jeff LaHue quotes the Beatles.

Rita Navarro gets her diploma.

Enrico Buzon and Margaret Bryd listen to the advise from the podium.

Friends, BHS and Brunswick expand

Take a quick look around you. See how your surroundings have changed . . . how they've grown? Look at your classmates. See how they've grown up (and out) around you? Can you notice the evident change in them that's not always so evident in yourself? Do you remember that first day of high school and how young everyone looked in their brand new clothes?

And take a look at our spacious two building high school and remember your freshman year, and how you had to fight to get through the congested halls. See how it's emerged to give you elbow room.

And just look around Brunswick. See how the businesses have expanded also? Just by going through the ad sections of previous yearbooks, you can see many new businesses. So look around you and recognize these important and needed changes.

Our friends have matured, our school has expanded, and Brunswick has grown. So look at these last few pages and see how this once rural community has become part of our growing and bustling world.

Patrons boost 'Trident' sales

The spirit of '77 showed through when students and parents mailed in their order form to patronize Trident '77.

Trident subscribers ordered yearbooks differently this year. Instead of the usual system of ordering from homeroom representatives, the staff created and sent out a brochure, explaining the yearbook and offering ordering information to all Brunswick High School and JVS parents.

The sales results were satisfying. Both the staff and parents enjoyed the convenience of the direct mail ordering. More than 165 persons took advantage of the easy Christmas shopping and ordered yearbooks as presents to be picked up in the fall.

The best results, however, came from a record eight times more patrons than the year before.

Carter elected, seeks return to greatness

By Associated Press

A jubilant President-elect Jimmy Carter urged the nation to work for ity and "to make the country eat once again."

Carter was enthusiastically welmed by a large crowd of supporters in Atlanta who waited until 4 a.m. for word of his victory over Republican Gerald Ford.

Jubilant at his victory and heartened by the crowd, Carter shouted:

"Are you proud of our nation? Do you think we can help to unify it and bring it back together? Do you think we can put our people back to work?"

"Yes. Yes. Yes," the crowd shouted back.

"So do I," Carter added softly.

LATER, Carter returned to his hometown of Plains.

As he stood at the railroad station, the dawn's first rays brightening the street, neighbors and supporters extended a warm welcome to America's 39th President elect.

The scene was too much for the soft-spoken, stern-willed Carter.

"I came all the way through 2 months and I didn't get choked up until I . . ."
